

CITY OF CARSON

February 1, 2011

Dear Carousel Tract Residents and Homeowners,

First off, I would like to thank those who attended the city's community dialogue meeting on Thursday, January 13th at the Juanita Millender McDonald Community Center. The city was able to gather questions and concerns that were expressed individually to staff during the meeting and written on question cards. We have shared this information with the Regional Water Quality Control Board (RWQCB) so they can better prepare for their next community meeting scheduled for February 17, 2011, from 6:00 p.m. to 8:00 p.m., at the Juanita Millender McDonald Community Center.

In an effort to provide residents with more individualized access to information, the city requested the RWQCB staff to provide one-on-one and/or small group consultations to interested Carousel residents in addition to the community meeting. These meetings will allow residents to discuss the status of their individual property and ask specific questions. Please look for a letter from the RWQCB inviting you to schedule an appointment for the afternoon of February 16th or February 17th. The meetings will take place at city hall in order to provide a convenient location. The city encourages you to take advantage of this opportunity to meet with the RWQCB staff. We believe this personalized time will be extremely beneficial to those who participate. For further information or to make an appointment with the RWQCB, please call Rebecca Veiga Nascimento, Regional Board Environmental Justice Coordinator, at (213) 576-6784 or rveiga@waterboards.ca.gov.

We continue to work on your behalf and will make every attempt to provide assistance as needed. As a reminder, please note that the RWQCB released the revised Clean-up and Abatement Order (CAO) on January 27, 2011 with a 10-day comment period extending to February 7, 2011. Please contact Sheri Repp-Loadsman, Planner Officer, or Sharon Song, Associate Planner, at 310-952-1761 or visit the city's webpage at <https://ci.carson.ca.us/carouseltract>, to obtain updated information and meeting announcements.

Sincerely,

Cliff Graves
