I. SUMMARY

This item is on the agenda at the request of Mayor Dear.

The City Council is requested to consider co-hosting the February 16, 2011, Carson Sheriff's Station Support Foundation's (CSSSF) 5th Annual Distinguished Service Awards.

II. RECOMMENDATION

TAKE the following actions:

1. APPROVE co-hosting CSSSF's 5th Annual Distinguished Service Awards on February 16, 2011, in Hall ABC of the Congresswoman Juanita Millender-McDonald Community Center.
2. AUTHORIZE staff to assist with the preparation and coordination of the event.

III. ALTERNATIVES

1. DECLINE the request to co-host the CSSSF 5th Annual Distinguished Service Awards on February 16, 2011.
2. TAKE another action the City Council deems appropriate.

IV. BACKGROUND

The CSSSF was founded in 2006 as a non-profit organization by residents and local businesses that joined forces to support the sworn deputies, the professional staff and volunteers of the Carson Sheriff's Station. Since its inception, the CSSSF has annually recognized men and women in law enforcement, public safety, highway patrol, and fire as well as community volunteers and citizens for their commitment to the safety and security of the citizens of Carson and for their heroic and unselfish acts.

CSSSF is requesting that the city join in recognizing these outstanding men and women by co-hosting the 5th Annual Distinguished Service Awards on February 16, 2011, in Hall ABC of the Congresswoman Juanita Millender-McDonald

Community Center and to authorize one staff member to assist with the preparation and coordination of the event. The City Council successfully co-hosted the previous awards held on February 24, 2010, when the Foundation Board decided to change the venue and instead have a luncheon to enhance the program and gain exposure.

V. FISCAL IMPACT

Staff costs associated with the preparation and coordination of the event will be absorbed within the current fiscal year budget at an amount not to exceed $500.00.

VI. EXHIBITS

None.
