FORM OF GOVERNMENT

Charter City

The municipal government established by this Charter shall continue to be the form of government known as the "Council-Manager" form of government so that the city council shall establish the policies of the City, and the city manager shall administer the government of the City in accordance with such policies.

The elective officers of the City shall consist of four city council members, one directly elected mayor, a city clerk, and a city treasurer. The members of the city council and the mayor shall be elected by the voters from the City at large at the time and in the manner provided in this Charter. In the event that the population of the City exceeds one hundred thousand (100,000) residents, by resolution of the city council, the City may increase the elective officers of the City to six city council members, one directly elected mayor, a city clerk, and a city treasurer.

All elective officers shall serve for a term of four years and until their respective successors are elected and qualified.

The City Council is the legislative branch of the city's government. The Council meetings are a public forum where the City Council makes laws, policies, and decisions that govern the City of Carson.

ADMINISTRATION

Carson is one of more than 300 California cities operating under the City Council/City Manager form of government.

The city manager shall be the administrative head of the government of the City under the direction and control of the city council. The city manager shall be responsible for the efficient administration of all the affairs of the City which are under the city manager's control. In addition to his or her general powers as administrative head, and not as a limitation thereon, the city manager shall have the powers and duties as set forth by ordinance of the city council.

COMMISSIONS, COMMITTEES AND BOARDS

All commissions, committees and boards are comprised of appointments by the Mayor with ratification by the City Council. All appointees are appointed to a two (2) year term of office which expires on March 31 of the year of the Municipal Election (except Relocation Appeals Board and Youth Commission). Vacancies and replacements to commissions, committees and boards are filled by the Mayor. The City's commissions, committees and boards are as follows:

Economic Development Commission:

Members are responsible for planning strategies to attract business and industry to the City of Carson and to create a positive image and atmosphere for business and industry in the City. Each member must be and remain a resident of, or have a place of employment or business in the City of Carson, and be at least eighteen (18) years of age at the time of the member's appointment.

Environmental Commission: Members are responsible for reviewing the major environmental impacts associated with those projects which may have a significant impact on the environment. The commission assures the City that adequate information is available on potential project impacts such as air quality, water, sewage, noise, hazardous waste, traffic, and identifies corrective measures which must be incorporated into a project in order to mitigate any negative impacts. Each member must be a resident of the City of Carson.

Human Relations Commission: Members are responsible for advising and consulting with the City of Council on matters relating to protecting the rights of individuals and seeking to provide for the full realization of the hopes, dreams, and aspirations of all members of society. The commission may become involved in matters dealing with discrimination on the basis of race, religion, national origin, disabilities, culture, economic status, age or sex. In addition, the commission makes such studies as may be necessary in any area of human relations in the community and works with other organizations in the community to further develop the human potential of all members of the City's population. Each member must be a resident of the City of Carson.

Measure C and Measure K Budget Oversight Committee:

Members are responsible for acting in an advisory capacity to the City Council on matters relating to the newly created utility users' tax. Each member must be and remain a resident of or have a place of employment or business in the City of Carson and be at least eighteen (18) years of age at the time of the member's appointment.

Mobilehome Park Rental Review Board:

Members' responsibility of the Board is to determine fair, just, and equitable rent increases and to hear petitions for space rental increases at semi-monthly hearings. Must be residents of the City but are not homeowners, park owners, landlords, property managers or tenants in multi-family housing.

Parks, Recreation and Cultural Arts Commission:

Members shall advise and recommend to the City Council and City staff on all matters relating to development of recreation areas, facilities, programs, cultural art presentations, and improved recreational services.

COMMISSIONS, COMMITTEE AND BOARDS

Planning Commission: Members are responsible for the review and approval of all new major residential commercial and industrial developments proposed in the City. In addition, any development in the redevelopment areas and major new heavy industrial projects in the city are also subject to the action of the Planning Commission. The Commission is advisory to the City Council on policy issues that affect the long term growth and development of the city, as reflected in the general plan. Each member must be a resident of the City of Carson.

Public Relations Commission: Members are responsible for developing a public relations statement for the City and a comprehensive community relations plan to enhance positive and proactive publicity for the City of Carson. Assists with improving public relations priorities and channels of communication with the local media, community, public institutions and business.

Public Safety Commission: Members acting in an advisory capacity to the City Council, City Manager, and Public Safety Manager in certain matters pertaining to public safety services within the City. Each member must be a resident of the City of Carson and be at least eighteen (18) years of age at the time of the member's appointment.

Public Works Commission: Members are responsible for the City's public works issues. The commission gives advice on activities within the public right-of-way not subject to administrative permit procedure, including enrichments and undergrounding of utilities; traffic management, including traffic circulation and regulatory traffic control devices which require action by the City Council or the Planning Commission; and recommends special traffic and parking studies and temporary street closures. Each member must be and remain a resident of, or have a place of employment or business in the City of Carson, and be at least eighteen (18) years of age at the time of the member's appointment.

Relocation Appeals Board: Members are responsible for hearing complaints brought by residents and businesses on various project areas relating to relocation. The Board determines if the redevelopment agency has complied with the provisions of the Community Redevelopment Law. Any member of the Carson Redevelopment Agency, the City Council or of any City agency responsible directly or indirectly for the determination of relocation assistance claims may not serve on the Board.

Senior Citizens Advisory Commission: Members are responsible for advising the City Council on senior citizens issues concerning, but not limited to: social services programs, senior services programs, Joseph B. O'Neal, Jr. Stroke Center, seniors assisted living/in-home supportive services program, housing, security and personal safety, transportation, senior recreation programs, special needs programs, economics, and other governmental concerns, which impact the seniors of Carson. The commission also assists staff in developing financial support networks and delivery of services to seniors. Must be and remain a resident of the City of Carson and be at least fifty (50) years of age.

Veterans Affairs Commission: Members are responsible for acting in an advisory capacity to the City Council and the Director of Recreation and Community Services in all matters pertaining to veterans' issues, cooperate with other governmental agencies and civic groups in the advancement of sound veterans' problems, concerns, and issues. Each member must be a resident of the City of Carson and be at least eighteen (18) years of age at the time of the member's appointment.

Women's Issues Commission: Members acting in an advisory capacity to the City Council on issues affecting women and families in the City of Carson including domestic violence, educational equality, women's empowerment, self-esteem, teen-dating abuse, women's health, parenting, child care, social service resources available to women, and other issues of particular concern to women and families. Each member must be a resident of or work in the City of Carson, during tenure and must be at least eighteen (18) years of age at the time of the appointment.

Youth Commission: Members are responsible for advising the City Council on the planning and development of youth facilities, programs, and services. The commission aids in coordinating youth services with the programs of other governmental agencies, public service agencies, and volunteer organizations. The Youth Commission also generates discussion in the community with respect to youth problems, concerns, and issues. Must be and remain a resident of the City of Carson and be at least thirteen (13) but not more than eighteen (18) years of age at the time of the appointment.
