Monday, June 1, 2020

UPDATES

To help keep the community be informed, the City of Carson is providing updates related to COVID-19 news, health and safety tips, and links to meet the needs of the community and protect public health.

SPECIAL UPDATE ON PROTESTS ENSUED BY THE DEATH OF GEORGE FLOYD

- Protests and Marches Sparked By The Death of George Floyd while in police custody began last week throughout the country and continued through the weekend. While there were peaceful organized marches in protest, unruly individuals managed to cause destruction of many business and private property throughout L.A. County. We are happy to report that with the assistance of our extra vigilant Carson residents who immediately reported suspicious activity at South bay Pavilion to the Carson Sheriff Station, arrest were made immediately.

“While you were sleeping your Carson Station personnel made multiple arrests to protect local businesses from those that attempted looting. We thank our residents for calling when they saw suspicious activity. Your help made the world of difference in our ability to respond and mitigate any issues quickly.” – Carson Sheriff Station <https://www.facebook.com/CarsonSheriffsStation>
