

evidence for the purposes of auditing, evaluation, inspection, and monitoring of the program set forth in this Agreement, including the interviewing of the Contractor's staff and program participants during normal business hours.

The City shall have the authority to examine the books and records used by the Contractor in accounting for expenses incurred under this Agreement. Should these books and records not meet the minimum standards of the accepted accounting practices of the City, the City reserves the right to withhold any or all of its funding to the Contractor until minimum standards are met.

The City may require the Contractor to use any or all of the City's accounting or administrative procedures used in planning, controlling, monitoring, and reporting of all fiscal matters relating to this Agreement.

The City reserves the right to dispatch auditors of its choosing to any site where any phase of the program is being conducted, controlled, or advanced in any way, tangible or intangible. Such sites may include the home office, any branch office, or other locations of the Contractor if such sites, or the activities performed thereon, have any relationship to the program covered by this Agreement.

When fiscal or special audit determines that the Contractor has expended funds which are questioned under the criteria set forth herein, the Contractor shall be notified and given the opportunity to justify questioned expenditures prior to the City's final determination of the disallowed costs, in accordance with the procedures established under WIA.
