

- XIII(b). No Impact. The adoption of the updated Housing Element will not in itself result in substantial adverse physical impacts associated with the provision of new or physically altered police protection facilities. Impacts associated with new police protection facilities resulting from the anticipated growth and development of the City have been adequately addressed by policies the Carson General Plan. Mitigation measures integrated into the General Plan in the form of goals, policies, and implementation measures are designed to reduce all significant impacts to a level of less than significant.
- XIII(c). No Impact. The adoption of the updated Housing Element will not in itself result in substantial adverse physical impacts associated with the provision of new or physically altered school facilities. Impacts associated with new school facilities resulting from the anticipated growth and development of the City have been addressed in the EIR which found that impacts of new residential development would be significant and unavoidable. The expansion of school facilities (provided by the Compton Unified School District and the Los Angeles Unified School District) are generally funded through State resources and through the payment of school impact fees for the two school districts.
- XIII(d). No Impact: The adoption of the updated Housing Element will not in itself result in substantial adverse physical impacts associated with the provision of new or physically altered park facilities. Impacts associated with new park facilities resulting from the anticipated growth and development of the City have been adequately addressed in the Carson General Plan.
- XIII(e). No Impact. The adoption of the updated Housing Element will not in itself result in substantial adverse physical impacts associated with the provision of new or physically altered public facilities. Impacts associated with new public facilities resulting from the anticipated growth and development in the city, have been adequately addressed in the Carson General Plan.

Explanation of Checklist Judgements:

- XIV(a). No Impact. The adoption of the updated Housing Element will not in itself result in an increase of the use of existing neighborhood and regional parks or other recreational facilities such that substantial physical deterioration of the facility would occur or be accelerated. Impacts to existing recreational facilities resulting from population growth have been adequately addressed in the Carson General Plan. No additional mitigation measures were proposed in the General Plan EIR.
