(2) Any portion of a regional share allocation that is transferred to another jurisdiction, and that is not constructed within the three-year deadline set forth in paragraph (1), shall be reallocated by the council of governments to the transferring city or county, and the transferring city or county shall modify its zoning ordinance, if necessary, and amend its housing element to reflect the reallocated units.

(3) If, at the end of the five-year housing element planning period, any portion of a regional share allocation that is transferred to another jurisdiction is not yet constructed, the council of governments shall add the unbuilt units to the normal regional fair share allocation and reallocate that amount to either of the following:

(A) The receiving city, if the three-year deadline for construction has not yet occurred; or

(B) The transferring city, if the three-year deadline for construction has occurred.

(4) If the transferred units are not constructed within three years, the nonperforming jurisdictions participating in the transfer of regional share allocations shall be precluded from transferring their regional shares, pursuant to this section, for the planning period of the next periodic update of the housing element.

(j) On or after January 1, 2000, no transferring city or county shall enter into an agreement pursuant to this section unless a later enacted statute, which is enacted before January 1, 2000, deletes or extends that date.

(k) If Article XXXIV of the California Constitution is applicable, the receiving city or county shall certify that it has sufficient authority under Article XXXIV of the California Constitution to allow development of units transferred pursuant to this section.

(l) The receiving city or county shall not, within three years of the date of the transfer agreement entered into pursuant to this section, or until transferred units are constructed, whichever is longer, enter into a contract to transfer units outside the territorial jurisdiction of the agency pursuant to this section.

(m) Communities that have transferred a portion of their share of the regional housing need to another city or county pursuant to this section shall comply with all other provisions of law for purposes of meeting the remaining regional housing need not transferred, including compliance with the provisions of Section 65589.5.

(n) As used in this section, "housing market area" means the area determined by a council of governments or the department pursuant to Section 65584, and based upon market demand for housing, employment opportunities, the availability of suitable sites and public facilities, and commuting patterns.

(o) This section shall not be construed to interfere with the right of counties to transfer shares of regional housing needs pursuant to paragraph (5) of subdivision (c) of Section 65584.

65584.6. (a) The County of Napa may, during its current housing element planning period, identified in Section 65588, meet up to 15 percent of its existing share of the regional housing need for lower income households, as defined in Section 65584, by committing funds for the purpose of constructing affordable housing units, and constructing those units in one or more cities within the county, only after all of the following conditions are met:
