COMMISSIONERS' ORAL COMMUNICATIONS / PARK REPORTS

Commissioner C. Dahilig spoke of concerns regarding the lighting at Dolphin Park especially with baseball season coming up.

Commissioner J. Johnson communicated positive feedback on the water aerobics at Hemingway Aquatic Center. She herself participates and is especially enjoying the Senior Aquatic Aerobics.

Commissioner D. Langston shared concerns regarding the poor lighting at Veterans SportsComplex. Also discussed two (2) doors at the gym that are rotting at the bottom (one by the stairs, the other by the ramp).

Commissioner S. Lawrence discussed the shooting that occurred a week prior at Stevenson Park. His concern is that he inquired about the security cameras to assist the Carson Sheriffs in finding the suspects however he was told that the cameras are not in working condition. This is a big concern for Commissioner S. Lawrence and he asks for Commissioners support in taking this issue to the City Council to prioritize working cameras at all parks especially because there are children at the parks participating in Youth Sports programs.

Vice-Chair A. Cainglet requests that staff follow-up and report on concerns regarding Senior Basketball raised by resident, Mr. Flores, during the July commission meeting as well as all other concerns raised by commissioners during previous meetings.
