6. PLANNING MANAGERS REPORT

Planning Manager Betancourt thanked Assistant Attorney Jones and Planning Secretary for organizing and preparing the planning commission meeting in his absence due to vacation to New York. He stated it was a great vacation.

7. COMMISSIONERS ORAL COMMUNICATIONS

Commissioner Guerra was concerned about the status on the cameras as it relates to crime prevention. It was discussed at a council meeting and wanted to know an update.

Planning Manager Betancourt asked Assistant Attorney Ben Jones if he had any knowledge about this as well as Planning Secretary Sandoval because he didn't have any information pertaining to this item.

Commissioner Hernandez is concerned with intersection of Avalon and Carson street and the two left turning lanes. He is grateful that who placed the lines down on the streets. It has helped tremendously. He also wanted to know what would be taking place at the gas station of 223rd and Main street. He commented that it needs upkeep or to knock the building down because it looks blithe in the area.

Planning Manager Betancourt stated he would follow up. He stated that a few developers were interested in the site however the owners are currently sitting on it. He stated that it should not preclude them from maintaining and upkeeping the property. He stated that he will follow up with that matter.

Commissioner Huff stated good evening to everyone. It is good to see everyone. She thanked the Vice Chair Palmer for doing an excellent job and Planning Secretary Sandoval for keeping her informed.

Commissioner Mfume stated that she is also grateful for the Carson Street and Avalon placed markings in those areas. She now feels safer. She thanked all the commissioners and thanked Planning Secretary Sandoval for being a great guide and she is thankful for the help.

Commissioner Docdocil stated by thanking the staff for all that they do as well as Vice Chair Palmer. He just celebrated his daughter's birthday at Carson Park and thanked the entire park staff for doing an amazing job. He stated there are a lot of events that are coming up all listed on the City of Carson's website. He is excited to be a part of all the new city events.

Vice Chair Palmer congratulated Commissioner Docdocil for no longer being an alternate on the commissioner but a board member.

Commissioner Wilson thanked everyone for the great experience. She thanked Commissioner Palmer for helping. She is grateful for the commissioners for assisting the community. She stated that the Dimly institute and Rainbow promotions is having a Jazz and Arts festival at Cal State Dominguez. Tickets are now available online for this Saturday. It is for a great cause.

Commissioner Diaz thanked Vice Chair Palmer for doing a great job. He thanked all the commissioners for being great to work with. He thanked the staff for the great work that they are doing. He also asked Planning Manager Betancourt about the work that is being completed on the road on Carson street between Alameda street and Santa Fe. He asked if the City of Carson is the lead agencies on this.

Planning Manager Betancourt did not know. He stated he would look into it and report back.

Commissioner Thomas echoed the sentiments of all the other commissioner about thanking the staff. She also stated that the latest Carson report magazine that goes out to the residents on the Sheriffs page has a place where you can request an Emergency Preparedness booklet that City's Council members have voted to put out for the residents. As a block captain she found it extremely informative and recommends those who are interested to obtain one as well.

Vice Chair Palmer thanked everyone for the kind words and planning staff for assistance. It is a pleasure to serve the city.
